"Crazy Joe"

Joe
Did you ever think
That you would go so soon
And Joe
I really thought
I would always hear you sing your silly tune

Now Momma's gonna cry
When she stares at the chair
Where you once sat and laughed

Those memories
Of your big wide grin
Will never bring you back

You took it upon yourself to see
They had the things they needed to be
With that in mind you set them free

Crazy Joe did you know?
Did you know Crazy Joe?

Joe
Did you ever think
You'd play that final football game
And Joe
Without you now
Life will probably just go on the same

But the boys are gonna cheer
When they hear of the tear
That you shed for the team

The loss was sad
And you felt bad
At least that's how it seemed

You took it upon yourself to see
We had the things we needed to be
With that in mind you set us free

Crazy Joe did you know?
Did you know Crazy Joe?

a song by Denny LaSorda '77 dedicate this book to Joseph "Crazy Joe" Kershishnik

To the Graduates of the Class of 1977,

The people pictured on these pages have worked hard to produce a memory – for you. Many personalities ranging from the Boy Next Door, a photographer who'd rather ski, and another who would rather drive me crazy to the best magician (& co.) I know all added their own ideas and suggestions to create this book. I thank them all.

We hope years from now happy times will be found in the pages we've created for all of you!

Good luck!

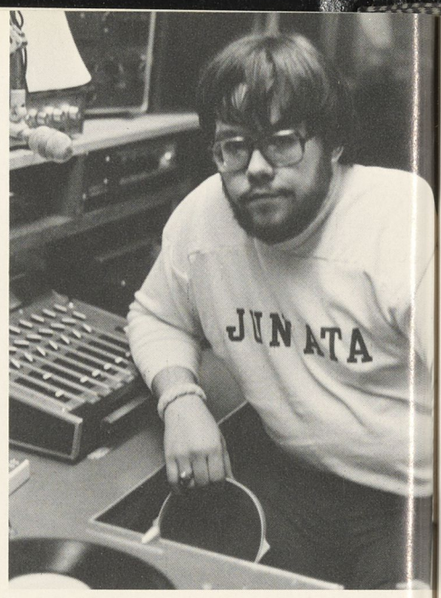
wjc becomes wkvr



WJC, "the voice of Juniata College," was completed in the summer of 1954 with the first broadcast occuring on September 16, of that year. The charter for the student owned and operated radio station was submitted to the Juniata Student Senate on February 23, 1955, and was unanimously approved that same day.

The station was originally under a Carrier Current System, where the signal was not radiated through the air, as with a commercial station, but rather was transmitted to the dorms via each dorm's electric system. That is, each dorm effectively had its own transmitter.

On January 5, 1977, the Federal Communications Commission issued WJC a new license. After undergoing some major changes WJC became the FM station known today as WKVR. The college is now the station owner and the Dean of Student Services has an integral part in the station's functioning. A noticeable physical change occurred with the building of a 40 foot tower over the Brumbaugh Science Center. This change allows wider and better reception of the "Music People" of WKVR.

NO ONE ELSE HAS IT

This year The Kim Ford Studios of Huntingdon and Tyrone are offering each Juniata College Senior a contemporary portrait sitting. The sitting consists of a series of formal poses for yearbook use and a series of informal poses either in the studio or outdoors. Seniors from last year's graduating class were introduced to our series of informal contemporary poses and the comments were unbelievable. A special reduction of prices is available to the graduating senior. Why not schedule your senior appointment now!
